The company is one of a number of companies part of the Rockhall Investment Group established for the purposes of managing the operations of the said quarry and the assets therein.

9. In late September 2022 the company began suffering financial difficulties. The company had significant debt obligations totaling €1.36 million which comprised an AIB SBCI loan of €450,000 together with an asset finance facility from AIB finance and leasing totaling €910,000. The level of debt of the company could not be serviced by the cash flows from the then sales of ready mix and aggregates which were generated by the quarry.

10. Finbar Jones, the uncle of the directors of the company, was engaged in September 2022 in an oversight role of the management accounts of the company which included the preparation of monthly management accounts and cash flow forecasting. Given the significant debt obligations of the company the company required significant increase in sales revenues and operational cost efficiencies to service the high debt levels of the company. As part of a financial plan to reduce the arrears of debt due by the company and alleviate its debt obligations for the purposes of increasing sales and streamlining operational efficiencies it was agreed between the company on the one part and the petitioner on the other part that financial assistance would be provided to the company by the petitioner by way of discharge of loan payments due to Allied Irish Bank. This agreement was made orally over the course of a number of meetings between the parties.

On the 10th October, 2024, the petitioner sought a meeting with the company to regularise this issue and agree a framework to address the debt due to the petitioner by the company.

13. No payments were received by the petitioner from the company and by letter dated the 4th March 2025 the petitioner wrote to the company seeking the payment of €90,000 which demand was in the following terms:

"Dear Sirs,

Further to the above and to our previous correspondence, the monies due to our client in the sum of €90,000 remains outstanding.

We await hearing from you as soon as possible in connection with the above.

Yours sincerely,

Declan McHugh
Sweeney McHugh Solicitors"

14. No response has been received from the company and neither has the petitioner received payment from the company or any person in respect of the said debt. I say more than three weeks have now passed since the demand was made and the company has neglected to pay or satisfy the said debt in whole or in part or make any offer to the petitioner to secure same.

15. The company is indebted to your petitioner in the sum of €90,000.

16. I say more than three weeks have now passed since the demand was made and the company has neglected to pay or satisfy the said debt in whole or in part or make any offer to the petitioner to secure same.

18. In the circumstances, the company may be wound up in accordance with section 569(1)(d) of the Companies Act 2014 under Section 571 of the Companies Act 2014.
