EUROPEAN UNION (GOOD AGRICULTURAL PRACTICE FOR PROTECTION OF WATERS) REGULATIONS 2025

These Regulations, which give effect to Ireland's Sixth Nitrates Action Programme, provide statutory support for good agricultural practice to protect waters against pollution from agricultural sources and include measures such as

- Increased focus on compliance and enforcement
- Improved nutrient distribution on fragmented farms,
- Increased slurry and soil water storage capacity requirements,
- Expansion of DAFM's organic nutrient movement database.

The Regulations give further effect to several European Directives including Directives in relation to protection of waters against pollution from agricultural sources ("the Nitrates Directive"), dangerous substances in water, waste management, protection of groundwater, public participation in policy development and water policy (the Water Framework Directive). The Regulations revoke the European Communities (Good Agricultural Practice for Protection of Waters) Regulations, 2022 and other subsequent amending regulations.
