REVIEW OF THE CHILD PROTECTION SERVICES CASES CLOSED DURING THE COVID-19 LOCKDOWN PERIOD

The Minister for Children, Disability and Equality, Norma Foley, T.D., in the exercise of the powers conferred on her by Section 47 of the Child and Family Agency Act 2013 (no. 40 of 2013), has formally directed that the Child and Family Agency carry out a review of Child Protection and Welfare Cases closed during the COVID-19 lockdown period.

The formal direction from the Minister for Children, Disability and Equality to the Child and Family Agency is as follows:

WHEREAS:

a) During the period 1 March 2020 to 28 February 2022, when "lockdowns" were imposed in response to the Covid-19 pandemic, restrictions were imposed on schools, early years settings, health services and other child-facing supports, resulting in those services being temporarily closed or operating remotely for extended periods.

b) As a result, normal safeguarding structures and mandated reporting were limited, children were not engaging with mandated persons such as teachers, early years professionals, healthcare staff and others in the manner that they normally would, and those professionals had more limited opportunities to monitor the wellbeing of children.

c) In response to these issues, the Minister for Children, Disability and Equality requested Tusla, in the exercise of its statutory functions, to conduct systematic wellbeing checks to seek to establish the wellbeing of children known to Tusla services whose cases were closed during the COVID-19 lockdowns, under the oversight of a Steering Group convened by the Minister and chaired by Ms Tanya Ward, with the objective of providing assurance as to the safety and wellbeing of the relevant children and to identify any children who may be at risk or who are not receiving adequate care and protection.

d) To give further effect to that request, the Minister makes this direction under section 47 of the Child and Family Agency Act 2013.

NOW, THEREFORE in exercise of the powers conferred on her by section 47 of the Child and Family Agency Act 2013, the Minister for Children, Disability and Equality HEREBY DIRECTS as follows:

1. Tusla shall in the exercise of its statutory powers and functions conduct a wellbeing review to establish that children aged 0-18 years known to Tusla Child Protection Services whose cases were closed during the COVID-19 lockdown period (1 March 2020 to 28 February 2022) are currently accounted for, are known to a relevant State service or State funded service, and that the service is aware that they should contact Tusla if they have any concerns; and

2. The review shall be conducted under the oversight of the Steering Group, in accordance with its Terms of Reference, and the methodology agreed by the Steering Group.

   Tusla shall, in consultation with the Steering Group, provide written reports to the Minister every six weeks on progress, key findings, and significant issues identified as part of the wellbeing check, with a final report to be provided to the Minister on a date to be fixed in accordance with the Terms of Reference.
