WESTPORT (REGULATION AND CONTROL OF THE CONSUMPTION OF INTOXICATING SUBSTANCES IN PUBLIC PLACES) BYE-LAWS 2001

Whereas the Authority is of the opinion that it is desirable in the interests of the common good of the local community within the Functional Area that certain activities and/or matters should be regulated and controlled and that nuisances should be controlled or suppressed and whereas the Authority is further of the opinion that it is desirable that a Bye-Law be made for this purpose the Authority in exercise of the powers conferred on it by Section 37 of the Local Government Act, 1994 and in accordance with the Local Government Act, 1994 (Bye-Laws) Regulations, 1995 and 1999, and all other statutory powers on that behalf hereby makes the following Bye-Laws:—

TITLE

1. These Bye-Laws shall be cited as the Westport (Regulation and Control of the Consumption of Intoxicating Substances in Public Places) Bye-Laws 2001.

DEFINITIONS

2. In these Bye-Laws, except where the context otherwise requires, the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings:—
 - 2.1. “authorised person” means a member of The Garda Síochána.
 - 2.2. “the Authority” means Westport Urban District Council.
 - 2.3. “footpath”, “footway” and “road” have the meanings assigned to them respectively by the Roads Act, 1993.
 - 2.4. “functional area” means the Urban District of Westport.
 - 2.5. “intoxicating substance” means any intoxicating liquor, alcoholic drink, drugs, gas, solvent or other chemical substance or combination of substances capable of having an effect similar to intoxicating liquor or a drug other than a drug lawfully supplied by a Doctor/Chemist on a medical prescription.
 - 2.6. “intoxicating liquor” shall have the same meaning as in the Intoxicating Liquor Acts.
 - 2.7. “public place” includes—
 - 2.7.1. any footpath, footway or road in the functional area.
 - 2.7.2. any highway.
 - 2.7.3. any cemetery, church, churchyard, or the curtilage of any church.
 - 2.7.4. any school, schoolyard, or curtilage of any school.
 - 2.7.5. any premises, outdoor area, or other places where members of the public have or, are permitted to have access, whether of right, as a trespasser or by express or implied invitation.
 - 2.7.6. any vehicle or vessel used for the carriage of persons whether for reward or otherwise.
 - 2.7.7. any part of the foreshore and any coastal waters within or adjoining the functional area.

But does not include:—

- (1) A private house or dwelling or the garden or curtilage of such house or dwelling only in so far as concerns any activity of the owner or occupier or of a person therein or thereon as of right or with the express or implied permission of the owner or occupier.
 - (2) Any premises licensed for the consumption of intoxicating liquor during the hours authorised for sale and consumption of same pursuant to the Intoxicating Liquor Acts.
 - (3) The area on public road or footpath outside any premises licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquor under the Intoxicating Liquor Acts, on which any tables and chairs are placed and which is designed as suitable for the Licensing under Section 89 of the Act of the Local Government (Planning and Development) Act, 1963 (in these Bye-Laws called a Section 89 Licence) and in respect of which such licence has been granted by the Authority and is for the time being in force and being operated in compliance with any conditions contained therein.
- 2.8. "The Act" means the Local Government Act, 1994 and any other Act amending or extending same.
- 2.9. "The Intoxicating Liquor Acts" shall mean the Intoxicating Liquor Licensing Acts, 1833 to 2000 and all Acts extending or amending same governing the licensing and operation of premises for the display, sale and consumption of intoxicating liquor.

PROHIBITED ACTS

- 3.1. A person shall not use, consume, smoke, inhale, inject or in any way make use of an intoxicating substance other than intoxicating liquor or alcoholic drink in any place within the functional area. A person shall not have in his/her possession such intoxicating substances within the functional area with the intention of using, consuming, smoking, inhaling, injecting or in any way making use of such intoxicating substance within the functional area or of supplying to any other person for using in any way within the functional area.
- 3.2. A person shall not consume or attempt to consume intoxicating liquor or an alcoholic drink in a public place within the functional area and a person shall not have in his/her possession intoxicating liquor or an alcoholic drink in a public place within the functional area or of supplying it to any other person for consumption in a public place within the functional area.
- 3.3. For the purposes of sub-paragraph 3 (2) where a person has intoxicating liquor in his/her possession in a public place within the functional area in circumstances where it is reasonable to conclude that the person intends to consume same in that public place or other public place within the functional area or to supply same to another person for such consumption, it shall be presumed (until the contrary is shown, the onus of proof for which shall lie on the accused) that the person intended to consume the intoxicating liquor in a public place or to supply it to another person for such consumption.
- 3.4. For the purposes of sub-paragraph 3 (2) where a group of persons are congregated together in a public place within the functional area with intoxicating liquor in their immediate vicinity then each member of the group shall be deemed to be in possession of the intoxicating liquor and it shall not be necessary to prove that any one or more of the individuals handled the containers of intoxicating liquor.

- 3.5. Breach of any provision of this article shall be an offence under these bye-laws.

EXCEPTIONS

- 4.1. It shall not be an offence under these Bye-Laws to consume intoxicating liquor while seated at tables and chairs provided on a street or a public place adjacent to a hotel, restaurant or public house comprised in a Section 89 Licence where the consumption of such intoxicating liquor is in strict compliance with the liquor licence attaching to such hotel, restaurant or public house or any occasional licence (within the meaning of the Intoxicating Liquor Acts) granted in respect for such premises and is in strict compliance with the Intoxicating Liquor Acts concerning the sale and consumption of intoxicating liquor and where the arrangements for such tables and chairs are strictly compliant with the provisions of the Local Government (Planning and Development) Acts, 1963-2000 or as these are amended from time to time or pursuant to any regulations made thereunder or made under the provisions of the Roads Act, 1993 and where the tables and chairs aforesaid have been provided, for patrons only, by the proprietor(s) of the hotel, restaurant or public house aforesaid and where the consumption aforesaid occurs within the hours of trading permitted under the general law relating to spirits retailers on-licences (i.e., publican's licences).
- 4.2. An area temporarily licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquor as an occasional licence under the Intoxicating Liquor Acts.
- 4.3. Notwithstanding the provisions of these bye-laws the County Manager may at his/her discretion and after consultation with the Gardai relax the provisions of these bye-laws in whole or in part on the occasion of:—
 - (i) major civic or cultural celebrations or events
 - (ii) major sporting events

POWERS OF AUTHORISED PERSON

REQUEST TO MOVE

5. An Authorised person may request any person who appears to be committing or to have committed a breach of any provision of these bye-laws to leave the vicinity and move off in a peaceful and orderly manner or to refrain from any such breach. Failure to comply with such a request shall be an offence under these bye-laws.

TO SEIZE

- 6.1. Where an authorised person suspects, with reasonable cause, that an offence under these bye-laws has been committed or is being committed, such authorised person may seize and confiscate, without warrant any bottle or container which contains an intoxicating substance together with its contents.
- 6.2. Where an authorised person suspects with reasonable cause that a bottle or container in a public place situate in the functional area (whether or not in the possession of a person) holds an intoxicating substance and further suspects with reasonable cause that an offence under these bye-laws has been or is been or may have been committed, such authorised person may seize and confiscate without warrant any such bottle or container together with its contents.

6.3 In prosecuting an offence under these bye-laws, where it is proved that the accused was consuming or attempting to consume from or was in possession of a bottle or other container normally used for the sale of intoxicating liquor of any description, it shall be presumed (until the contrary is shown, the onus of proof for which shall be on the accused) that the accused was consuming, attempting to consume or was in possession of intoxicating liquor and it shall not be necessary for the prosecutor to prove by analysis or otherwise that the liquid involved was intoxicating liquor.

6.4 Where any member of The Garda Síochána has detected a breach of these bye-laws and where that member of The Garda Síochána also forms the opinion that the person who so breached the bye-laws is in possession of a container or containers of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of committing a further breach of these bye-laws, that member of The Garda Síochána may confiscate and may destroy all or any container or containers aforesaid together with the contents thereof.

6.5 Refusal to hand over to an authorised person on demand any bottle or container and the contents thereof to an authorised person shall be an offence under these bye-laws.

TO DEMAND NAME

7. Where an authorised person is of the opinion that an offence is being committed or has been committed under any provision of these bye-laws the authorised person may:—

- (i) Demand the name and address of any person whom such authorised person suspects with reasonable cause has committed or is committing such an offence.
- (ii) A person who fails or refuses to give his/her name and address when demanded under this section or gives a name or address when so demanded which is false or misleading shall be guilty of an offence under this bye-law.

PENALTIES

8. Any person who contravenes any provision of these bye-laws or who prevents, attempts to prevent or encourage any other person to prevent or attempt to prevent the exercise by an authorised person from exercising a power conferred by these bye-laws or who encourages any other person not to comply with a request made by an authorised officer under articles 5, 6 or 7 of these bye-laws shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,500 (€1904.61).

POWER OF ARREST

9. Any person who is in the opinion of a member of The Garda Síochána is committing or has committed a breach of either article 5, 6 or 7 of these bye-laws may be arrested without warrant by that member.

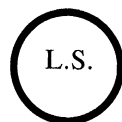

FIXED NOTICE

10. Notwithstanding the remedy provided for in Article 8 of these Bye-Laws, an authorised person may, pursuant to Section 41 of the Act and the regulations made thereunder serve a fixed payment notice (within the meaning of Section 41 aforesaid) on any person who is in his/her opinion committing or has committed an offence by virtue of a contravention of these bye-laws. Such fixed payment notice shall specify the amount of the fixed payment and the period within which the fixed payment must be paid in order to avoid prosecution and shall be in the general form of the notice set out in the First Schedule to the Local Government Act, 1994 (Bye-Laws) Regulations, 1995 — S.I. No. 360 of 1995 — (or as provided for in any amending regulations) but subject to such alterations thereto as the Council may consider appropriate in the case of these bye-laws. The amount of the fixed payment applicable to the fixed payment notice shall be £50.00 (€63.49).

COMMENCEMENT DATE

11. These bye-laws shall come into force on 13th July 2002.

Given under the common seal of the Westport Town Council on this 20th day of June, 2002.

SEAN STAUNTON,
Cathaoirleach.

MARTIN KEATING,
A/Manager.

ANN MOORE,
Town Clerk
