FOYLE CARLINGFORD AND IRISH LIGHTS
COMMISSION

Foyle Area and Carlingford Area (Licensing of Fishing Engines) (Amendment) Regulations 2003

Made2003

Coming into operation2003

The Foyle Carlingford and Irish Lights Commission, in exercise of its powers under section 13(1) (amended by section 34(3) of the British-Irish Agreement Act 1999 and section 5(1) of the British-Irish Agreement (Amendment) Act 2002) and 13(2) of the Foyle Fisheries 1952 Act which stand transferred to it under section 34(1) of the British-Irish Agreement Act 1999, and in exercise of the powers conferred by section 13(1) and (2) of the Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952 and now vested in it and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, with the approval of the Government of Ireland and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, under the agreement made between those Governments on 19 November 2002 and section 5(1) of the British-Irish Agreement (Amendment) Act 2002, hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Foyle Area and Carlingford Area (Licensing of Fishing Engines) (Amendment) Regulations 2003 and shall come into operation on 1st March 2003.

Amendment of the Foyle and Carlingford Area (Licensing of Fishing Engines) regulations 2001

2. The Foyle and Carlingford Area (Licensing of Fishing Engines) Regulations 2001 shall be amended as provided in regulations 3 to 5.

Interpretation

3. In regulation 2 (interpretation) there shall be added at the appropriate alphabetical places the following definitions—

“coarse fishing rod licence” means a fishing licence issued by the Commission for one rod and line to fish for, take and kill eels and coarse fish;

“game fishing rod licence” means a fishing licence issued by the Commission for one rod and line to fish for, take and kill salmonids, eels and coarse fish;

“salmonids” means a fish of the family Salmonidae, including salmon, sea trout, rainbow trout and brown trout.

Licensing of fishing engines

4. In regulation 3(1) for the words “salmon, trout, rainbow trout” where they twice occur there shall be substituted the words “salmonids, eels”.

Fishing licence fees

5. For Part III of the Schedule there shall be substituted the following Part—

“PART III

FOYLE CARLINGFORD AND IRISH LIGHTS
COMMISSION

Foyle Area and Carlingford Area (Angling) (Amendment)
Regulations 2004

The Foyle, Carlingford and Irish Lights Commission, in exercise of its powers under section 13(1) (amended by section 34(3) of the British-Irish Agreement Act 1999 and section 5(1) of the British-Irish Agreement (Amendment) Act 2002) of the Foyle Fisheries Act 1952 which stand transferred to it under section 34(1) of the British-Irish Agreement Act 1999, and in exercise of the powers conferred by section 13(1) of the Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952 and now vested in it and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, with the approval of the Government of Ireland and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, under the agreement made between those Governments on 19 November 2002 and section 5(1) of the British-Irish Agreement (Amendment) Act 2002, hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Foyle Area and Carlingford Area (Angling) (Amendment) Regulations 2004 and shall come into operation on 1st April 2004.

Amendment of the Foyle and Carlingford Area (Angling) Regulations 2001

2. The Foyle and Carlingford Area (Angling) Regulations 2001 shall be amended in accordance with regulations 3 to 6.

Interpretation

3. In regulation 2—

(a) the definition of “angling for coarse fish” shall be omitted;

(b) after the definition of “snatch” omit the word “and” and insert the following definition—

““specimen pike” means—

(a) in relation to a pike captured in a river, a pike weighing 9 kilogrammes or more;

(b) in relation to a pike captured in a lake, a pike weighing 13.6 kilogrammes or more;”.

Prohibitions and restrictions

4. In regulation 4(2) the words “or the Carlingford Area” shall be omitted.

Restrictions on bait

5. After regulation 5(3) there shall be added the following paragraph—

“(4) A person shall not use live fish as bait whilst angling in any fresh water in the Foyle Area or the Carlingford Area”.

Restrictions on number and size

6. For regulation 7 there shall be substituted the following regulation—

“Restrictions on number and size

7. (1) Subject to paragraph (3), a person shall not take by rod and line and retain—

(a) a salmonid of a length less than 25.4 cm;

(b) more than 1 salmonid on any one day during the period beginning on 1st March and ending on 31st May in any calendar year (both dates inclusive); or

(c) more than 4 salmonids on any other day.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), where a person takes by rod and line any salmonid of less than the minimum length specified in paragraph (1)(a) or a salmonid in excess of the maximum number specified in paragraph (1)(b) or (c), he shall return the salmonid to the water without avoidable injury.

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply in relation to a rainbow trout.

(4) Subject to paragraph (6), a person shall not take by rod and line and retain—

(a) a pike weighing 4 kilogrammes or more, or

(b) more than 2 pike on any one day.

(5) Subject to paragraph (6), where a person takes by rod and line any pike weighing 4 kilogrammes or more or a pike in excess of the maximum number specified in paragraph (4)(b), he shall return the pike to the water without avoidable injury.

(6) Paragraphs (4) and (5) shall not apply where a person has taken a specimen pike by rod and line provided that that person has not taken and retained another specimen pike on the same day.”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Foyle Area and Carlingford Area (Angling) Regulations 2001 by—

- (a) Omitting the definition of “angling for coarse fish” thus permitting a wider range of angling methods and equipment for coarse fishing (regulation 3(a));
- (b) removing the restriction on the use of floats in the Carlingford Area (regulation 4);
- (c) prohibiting the use of live fish as bait whilst angling in fresh water (regulation 5);
- (d) providing that on any one day during the period 1st March to 31st May only 1 salmonid may be taken by rod and line and retained (regulation 6);
- (e) removing the restriction on the number and size of rainbow trout which may be taken by rod and line and retained (regulation 6); and
- (f) introducing restrictions on the number and size of pike which may be taken by rod and line and retained (regulations 3(b) and 6).

FOYLE CARLINGFORD AND IRISH LIGHTS
COMMISSION
Foyle Area (Control of Drift and Draft Net Fishing)
Regulations 2004

The Foyle Carlingford and Irish Lights Commission, in exercise of its powers under section 13(1) (amended by section 34(3) of the British-Irish Agreement Act 1999 and section 5(1) of the British-Irish Agreement (Amendment) Act 2002) and 14 of the Foyle Fisheries Act 1952 which stand transferred to it under section 34(1) of the British-Irish Agreement Act 1999, and in exercise of the powers conferred by section 13(1) and 14 of the Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952 and now vested in it and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, with the approval of the Government of Ireland and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, under the agreement made between those Governments on 19th November 2002 and section 5(1) of the British-Irish Agreement (Amendment) Act 2002, hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation and Commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Foyle Area (Control of Drift and Draft Net Fishing) Regulations 2004 and shall come into operation on 1st July 2004.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations:

“applicant” means an individual who makes a licence application;

“crew member” means an individual whose name and address are included in an application for a licence in pursuance of regulation 4(1)(a) of the 2001 Regulations or are supplied to the Commission pursuant to regulation 4(7) of those Regulations;

“datum years” means the 3 calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year in respect of which the licence application is made;

“draft net fishing” means fishing lawfully using a draft net in the Foyle Area under the authority of a licence issued under the 2001 Regulations;

“drift net fishing” means fishing lawfully using a drift net in the Foyle Area under the authority of a licence issued under the 2001 Regulations;

“first datum year” means the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year in respect of which the licence application is made;

“Fisheries Acts” means the Foyle Fisheries Acts 1952 to 1983, the Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952, the Fisheries Acts 1959-1991 and the Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1966;

“licence” means a licence for drift or draft net fishing;

“licence application” means an application to the Commission for a licence;

“season” means the period or cumulation of periods in any calendar year when it is lawful to be engaged in draft net fishing or drift net fishing in the waters described individually in column 1 of the Schedule;

“second datum year” means the calendar year immediately preceding the first datum year;

“senior helper” means an individual nominated by a licensee in pursuance of regulation 4(1)(c) of the 2001 Regulations;

“single parent” means the parent in a household which does not include that parent’s spouse;

“the 2001 Regulations” means the Foyle and Carlingford Area (Licensing of Fishing Engines) Regulations 2001; and “third datum year” means the calendar year immediately preceding the second datum year.

Restriction on the number of drift net licences and draft net licences

3. (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the number of licences which the Commission may issue in any year under the 2001 Regulations in respect of any of the waters as described in column 1 of the Schedule shall not exceed the number specified in column 2 of the Schedule opposite the related description of the waters in column 1.

(2) Where in any year an applicant who held a licence in the previous year is declared to be disqualified from holding a licence in accordance with section 75 of the Foyle Fisheries Act 1952 or section 74 of the Foyle Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1952 and the applicant is qualified and otherwise would be entitled to a licence in accordance with these Regulations then in the event that:—

- (a) the period of disqualification will not expire before the end of the season the Commission shall correspondingly reduce the number of licences granted in that year in the appropriate waters specified in column 2 of the Schedule; or
- (b) the period of disqualification will expire before the end of the season the Commission shall retain the number of licences granted in that year in the appropriate waters specified in column 2 of the Schedule to enable it to grant him a licence for the remainder of the season.

(3) Where a licensee who is a single parent dies and at the date of death, has a child under the age of 18 years who could apply for and use a licence when he attains the age of 18 years and (but for the fact that the deceased licensee was a single parent) could become eligible to qualify under regulation 4(6) for the allocation of a licence the Commission shall, during the period before the child attains the age of 18 years, correspondingly reduce the number of licences in the appropriate waters specified in column 2 of the Schedule provided the deceased licensee had held a licence in each of the 3 years prior to his death and did not permit any fishing to take place in his absence during any or any part of a season or seasons in these years under the authority of his licence except when he obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have his senior helper act in his absence as provided in regulation

14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981.

Manner of allocation of drift net licence and draft net licence

4. (1) Where the number of licence applications in any year in respect of any of the waters described in column 1 of the Schedule exceeds the number specified in column 2 of the Schedule opposite the related description of the waters in column 1 the licences shall be allocated to applicants who are qualified, in accordance with the subsequent provisions of this regulation and regulations 5 and 6.

(2) The Commission shall firstly allocate licences to each applicant who—

- (a) held a licence in each of the datum years to fish in the waters in respect of which the licence application is made; and
- (b) did not permit any fishing to take place in his absence in any of these years under the authority of his licence other than for a temporary period not exceeding two days in each of the datum years and where fishing occurred in his absence authorisation permitting his senior helper to act in his absence had been obtained from the Commission as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981.

(3) If having allocated licences to applicants who are qualified in accordance with paragraph (2), any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to each applicant who meets the requirement of paragraph (2)(a) but does not meet the requirements of paragraph (2)(b) and whose failure to meet the requirements of paragraph (2)(b) was due to:—

- (a) the inability of the applicant to be present during the fishing operations in any or any part of a season or seasons in the datum years due to temporary illness or injury or other reasons (except chronic illness or infirmity or old age) outside the control of the applicant and he obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have his senior helper act in his absence as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981; or
- (b) the applicant being the spouse of a deceased licensee and who:—
 - (i) has held a licence each year since the date of the licensee’s death;
 - (ii) has a child of the deceased licensee under the age of 18 years who could apply for and use a licence when he attains the age of 18 years; and
 - (iii) before permitting any fishing to take place in her absence under the authority of her licence obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have her senior helper act in her absence, as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981.

(4) If, having allocated licences to applicants qualified in accordance with paragraph (3), any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to each applicant who is a child, having attained the age of 18 years, of a deceased licensee who died since the beginning of the first datum year or a licensee who has indicated to the Commission that he has retired from drift net fishing or draft net fishing and has given the Commission a written commitment that he will not be applying for a licence in any future year and where:—

- (a) the applicant has been the senior helper of the deceased or retired licensee in each datum year since he attained the age of 18 years;
- (b) the deceased or retired licensee did not permit any fishing to take place in his absence under the authority of his licence during any of the datum years except when he obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have his senior helper act in his absence for a season or any part of a season, as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981, due to temporary illness or injury or other reasons (except chronic illness or infirmity or old age) outside the control of the deceased or retired licensee; and
- (c) the deceased or retired licensee held a licence in each of the datum years.

(5) If, having allocated licences to applicants in accordance with paragraph (4), any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to each applicant who is the spouse of a licensee who died since the beginning of the first datum year who:—

- (a) did not permit any fishing to take place in his absence under the authority of his licence during any of the datum years except when he obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have his senior helper act in his absence for a season or any part of a season as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981, due to temporary illness or injury or other reasons (except chronic illness or infirmity or old age) outside the control of the deceased licensee; and

- (b) held a licence in each of the datum years;

and the applicant—

- (c) undertakes to the Commission that she will use the licence and not apply for the authorisation of the Commission to have her senior helper act in her absence for the season or any part of the season as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981 except when she is unable to be present during all or any of the fishing operations during the season due to temporary illness or injury or other reasons (except chronic illness or infirmity or old age) outside her control; or

- (d) has a child of the deceased licensee under the age of 18 years who could apply for and use a licence when he attains the age of 18 years.

(6) If, having allocated licences to applicants who are qualified in accordance with paragraph (5), any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to each applicant who is a child, having attained the age of 18 years, of a deceased licensee where the deceased licensee's spouse—

- (a) has held a licence each year since the date of the licensee's death;
- (b) during the datum years has not contravened regulation 14A of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981; and
- (c) has not applied for a licence in the current year and has given the Commission a written commitment that she will not be applying for a licence in any future year; and where either the deceased licensee or his spouse held a licence in each of the datum years and the applicant is the only child of the deceased licensee who makes an application.

(7) If, having allocated licences to applicants who are qualified in accordance with paragraph (6), any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to each applicant who is a child, having attained the age of 18 years, of a deceased licensee who at the time of his death was a single parent and where the applicant is the only child of the deceased licensee who makes an application provided the deceased licensee had held a licence in each of the 3 years prior to his death and did not permit any fishing to take place in his absence during any or any part of a season or seasons in these years under the authority of his licence except when he obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have his senior helper act in his absence as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981.

(8) If, having allocated licences to applicants who are qualified in accordance with paragraph (7) any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to each applicant who:—

- (a) (i) held a licence in 2 of the 3 datum years to fish in the waters in respect of which the licence application is made; and

- (ii) did not permit any fishing to take place in his absence in either of those years under the authority of his licence other than a temporary period not exceeding two days in each of those years and where fishing occurred in his absence authorisation permitting his senior helper to act in his absence had been obtained from the Commission as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981; or

- (b) held a licence in each of the datum years to fish in the waters in respect of which the licence application is made but in one of the datum years either—

(i) obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have his senior helper act in his absence for the season or any part of the season, as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981, and the inability of the applicant to be present was not due to temporary illness or injury or other reasons (except chronic illness or infirmity or old age) outside the control of the applicant; or

(ii) otherwise permitted fishing to take place in his absence under the authority of his licence in contravention of regulation 14A of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981.

(9) If having allocated licences to applicants who are qualified in accordance with paragraph (8) any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to each applicant who meets the requirement of paragraph (8)(a)(i) but does not meet the requirements of paragraph (8)(a)(ii) and whose failure to meet the requirements of paragraph (8)(a)(ii) was due to:—

(a) the inability of the applicant to be present during all the fishing operations in any or any part of the season or seasons in either or both of the datum years due to temporary illness or injury or other reasons (except chronic illness or infirmity or old age) outside the control of the applicant and he obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have his senior helper act in his absence, as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981; or

(b) the applicant being the spouse of a deceased licensee and who:—

(i) has held a licence each year since the date of the licensee's death;

(ii) has a child of the deceased licensee under the age of 18 years who could apply for and use a licence when he attains the age of 18 years; and

(iii) before permitting any fishing to take place in her absence under the authority of her licence obtained the authority of the Commission to have her nominated helper act in her absence, as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981.

10. If, having allocated licences to applicants who are qualified in accordance with paragraph (9), any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to each applicant who:—

(a) (i) held a licence in 1 of the 3 datum years to fish in the waters in respect of which the licence application is made; and

(ii) did not permit any fishing to take place in his absence in that year under the authority of his licence other than for a temporary period not exceeding two days and where fishing occurred in his absence authorisation permitting his senior helper to act in his absence had been obtained from the Commission as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981; or

(b) held a licence in 2 of the 3 datum years to fish in the waters in respect of which the licence application is made but in one of those datum years either—

(i) obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have his senior helper act in his absence for the season or any part of the season, as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981, and the inability of the applicant to be present was not due to temporary illness or injury or other reasons (except chronic illness or infirmity or old age) outside the control of the applicant; or

(ii) otherwise permitted fishing to take place in his absence under the authority of his licence in contravention of regulation 14A of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981; or

(c) held a licence in each of the datum years to fish in the waters in respect of which the licence application is made but in two of the datum years either:—

(i) obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have his senior helper act in his absence for the seasons or any part or parts of the seasons, as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981, and the inability of the applicant to be present was not due to temporary illness or injury or other reasons (except chronic illness or infirmity or old age) outside the control of the applicant; or

(ii) otherwise permitted fishing to take place in his absence under the authority of his licence in contravention of regulation 14A of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981.

(11) If, having allocated licences to applicants who are qualified in accordance with paragraph (10), any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to each applicant who meets the requirement of paragraph (10)(a)(i) but does not meet the requirements of paragraph (10)(a)(ii) and whose failure to meet the requirements of paragraph (10)(a)(ii) was due to:—

(a) the inability of the applicant to be present during all the fishing operations in the season or any part of the season in the datum year due to temporary illness or injury or other reasons (except chronic illness or infirmity or old age) outside the control of the applicant and he obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have his senior helper act in his absence, as provided for in regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981; or

- (b) the applicant being the spouse of a deceased licensee and who:—
- (i) has held a licence each year since the date of the licensee's death;
 - (ii) has a child of the deceased licensee under the age of 18 years who could apply for and use a licence when he attains the age of 18 years; and
 - (iii) before permitting any fishing to take place in her absence under the authority of her licence obtained the authorisation of the Commission to have her senior helper act in her absence, as provided by regulation 14A(2) of the Foyle Area (Control of Netting) Regulations 1981.
- (12) (a) If, having allocated licences to applicants who are qualified in accordance with paragraph (11), any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to each applicant who as a senior helper or crew member was engaged in drift net fishing or draft net fishing in at least one of the datum years.
- (b) When allocating licences in accordance with this paragraph the Commission shall decide on the priority of allocation having regard to:—
- (i) the number of datum years in which the applicant has been a senior helper or crew member;
 - (ii) the number of years subsequent to 1985 in which the applicant has been a senior helper or crew member for a previous licence holder and the said licence holder has held a licence during the datum years, died since the beginning of the first datum year or has not applied for a licence in the current year and has given the Commission a written commitment that he will not be applying for a licence in any future year, does not have a child who could qualify for a licence in accordance with paragraph (4), (6) or (7), and does not have a spouse who could qualify for a licence in accordance with paragraph (5);
 - (iii) the number of years since the applicant first made an application for a licence but for the purposes of this paragraph all such applications made earlier than 1980 shall be considered as applications first made in 1980;
 - (iv) the extent to which the applicant has already incurred expenditure on a boat, nets and other equipment which can be lawfully used for drift net fishing or draft net fishing; and
 - (v) any conviction under the Fisheries Acts in respect of an offence committed since the beginning of the first datum year.
- (c) The applicant shall provide the Commission with such documentary evidence as to the date when he first made application for a licence as may be required by the Commission.
- (d) The applicant shall provide the Commission with such documentary evidence as to his expenditure on a boat, nets or equipment required for drift net fishing or draft net fishing as may be required by the Commission.
- (13) If, having allocated licences to applicants who are qualified in accordance with paragraph (12), any licences still remain to be allocated the Commission shall proceed to the allocation of such remaining licences to any other applicants who are not qualified under the preceding provisions of this regulation and for the purposes of regulation 6 all such applicants shall have equal entitlement to be granted a licence.
5. (1) Where a former licensee has given a written commitment under regulation 4(4), (6) or (12)(b)(ii), he shall be precluded from being considered under the provisions of paragraphs (2) to (12) of regulation 4 if he applies for a licence.
- (2) If the applicant held a licence for the first time in any of the datum years when he was allocated a licence under the provisions of regulation 4(4), (5) or (6) the Commission shall regard the licence held by his parent or spouse for one or both of the previous datum years as having been held by the applicant for the purposes of allocating licences under the provisions of regulation 4(2), (3), (8), (9), (10) and (11).
- (3) If the applicant held a licence for the first time in any of the datum years when he was allocated a licence under the provisions of regulation 4(7) the applicant shall be deemed to have held a licence in all previous datum years when the Commission are allocating licences under the provisions of regulation 4(2), (3), (8), (9), (10) and (11).
6. When in the determination of allocations under any of the provisions of regulations 4 and 5 the Commission considers the number of applicants qualified under any of the said provisions have equal or nearly equal entitlement to be granted a licence and the number of licences remaining to be allocated is less than the said number of such applicants the Commission shall allocate the remaining licences by the drawing of lots in the presence of the applicants or their representatives provided that the failure of the applicant or his representative to be present at the venue on the date and time for such drawing of lots as notified to the applicant in writing by the Commission shall not invalidate the drawing of lots and allocation of licences.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations replace the Foyle Area (Control of Drift Net Fishing) Regulations 1993 and prescribe the maximum number of licences which the Foyle, Carlingford and Irish Lights Commission may issue for drift net and draft net fishing in the tidal waters of the Foyle Area. The Regulations also set out the manner in which such licences shall be allocated where the number of applications in any year exceeds the maximum number of licences prescribed.

The Regulations make the following changes of substance—

- (a) they impose a limit of 50 on the number of draft net licences which the Commission may issue in respect of the waters described at paragraph (c) of the Schedule;
- (b) they allow fishing to take place in the absence of the licensee for a temporary period of not more than two days in any datum year without the licensee's position in the licence allocation process being jeopardised;
- (c) they provide for the allocation of licences to spouses of deceased licensees who have a child who will attain the age of 18 years more than six years from the date of the licensee's death.

CANADA LIFE LIMITED ("CL")

On 26 August 2005 an Application was made to the High Court of Justice in London by PALAL and CL for an Order under Section 111(1) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the "Act") approving a scheme (the "Scheme") providing for the transfer by PALAL to CL of certain non-profit pension annuities issued by PALAL.

Copies of the report on the terms of the Scheme prepared by an independent expert in accordance with section 109(1) of the Act and of an explanatory statement (comprising a letter to policyholders, an explanatory booklet and a question and answer leaflet) setting out the terms of the Scheme and containing a summary of the independent expert's report may be obtained free of charge by calling 0845 070 4060. The explanatory statement, the full Scheme document, the full report of the independent expert and a report from the Heads of the Actuarial Function of each of PALAL and CL are also available via PALAL's website, www.phoenixlifegroup.co.uk, or by request in writing to The Part VII Transfer Department, PO Box 5524, 100 Holdenhurst Road, Bournemouth BH8 8ZW.

The Application is expected to be heard at the Royal Court of Justice, Strand, London WC2A 2LL on 19 December 2005. Any person (including any employee of PALAL or CL) who thinks that he or she would be adversely affected by the carrying out of the Scheme may attend the hearing and express their views. Anyone wishing to do so is asked to inform either of the Solicitors named below in writing at least two clear days prior to the date of the hearing. Anyone who is not going to attend the Court hearing but wishes to make any written representations about the Scheme should address them to either of the Solicitors named below at least two clear days prior to the date of the hearing.
