S.I. No. 79 of 2005.

EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES (NATURAL MINERAL
WATERS, SPRING WATERS AND OTHER WATERS IN BOTTLES OR CONTAINERS) REGULATIONS 2005.

(This note is not part of the Instrument, and does not purport to be a legal interpretation).

These Regulations, which, may be cited as the European Communities (Natural Mineral Waters Spring Waters and Other Waters in Bottles or Containers) Regulations 2005, give further effect to Council Directive 80/777/EEC of 15 July 1980 on the approximation of the laws of the Member States relating to the exploitation and marketing of natural mineral waters, as amended by Directive 96/70/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 28 October 1996. They also give further effect to Council Directive 98/83/EC of 3 November 1998 on the quality of water intended for human consumption and to Commission Directive 2003/40/EC of 16 May 2003 establishing the list, concentration limits and labelling requirements for the constituents of natural mineral waters and the conditions for using ozone-enriched air for the treatment of natural mineral waters and spring waters.

These Regulations set certain requirements in respect of the exploitation, treatment packaging and marketing of bottled waters and also include requirements in relation to labelling and various parametric values.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND CHILDREN

The Minister for Health and Children has made the following Statutory Instrument.

S.I. No. 85 of 2005.

HEALTH CONTRIBUTIONS (REFUNDS)
REGULATIONS 2005.

(This note is not part of the instrument, and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

These Regulations amend the Health Contributions Regulations 1979 which provide, inter alia, for the estimation, determination, collection etc. of health contributions payable by individuals within the PAYE system who are not in insurable employment e.g. company directors. Subsection (3) (inserted by the Social Welfare (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2002) of Section 7A of the Health Contribution Act, 1979, provides for the return of Health Contributions where a person makes a contribution towards a pension product defined in that subsection. The pension products in question are occupational pension schemes, retirement annuity contracts (RACs) and Personal Retirement Savings Accounts (PRSAs).

These Regulations, which apply to pension contributions paid on or after 1 January 2003, outline the circumstances in which a return of the Health Contributions is to be made and the basis for calculating the amount to be returned. No amount is to be returned where tax relief (and relief from health contributions) in respect of the pension payment has already been given under the “net pay” arrangement. Under such arrangement, employers calculate liability to tax, PRSI and Health Contribution on net pay after the pension payment has been deducted from gross pay.

Where these Regulations apply, the amount to be repaid for any particular contribution year will be determined by reference to the amount of the pension payment allowable for tax purposes for that year. As pension payments may, in some instances, be carried back to the previous year for tax purposes (i.e. payments made on or before 31 October in a year), the first year for which refunds can be claimed is the year 2002 i.e. in respect of pension payments made between 1 January, 2003 and 31 October, 2003.

Published by the Stationery Office, Dublin. To be purchased directly from the Government Publications Sale Office, Sun Alliance House, Molesworth St., Dublin 2 or by mail order from Government Publications, Postal Trade Section 51 St. Stephen's Green, Dublin 2, (Tel: 01-647 6834/35/36/37; Fax 01-647 6843) or through any bookseller. Price €1.27.
