UNCLAIMED LIFE ASSURANCE POLICIES NOTICE

Under the terms of the Unclaimed Life Assurance Policies Act, 2003 life assurance companies are required to identify policies where there has been no recent communication from the policy holder and to designate them as unclaimed policies.

A policy is unclaimed where premiums are no longer being paid and an amount is payable to the policy holder* and where:

- In the case of a fixed term policy which matured at least 5 years ago, there has been no written communication from the policy holder since the policy matured; OR
- In the case of a policy without a fixed term, there has been no written communication from the policy holder for at least 15 years, OR
- In the case of personal pension policies (i.e. those not linked to an employer's pension scheme), 5 years have elapsed, without communication, since the latest retirement date contained in the policy.

Life Assurance companies are required to contact holders of unclaimed policies to ascertain their wishes in respect of the policy e.g. to receive any money due or to continue/reactivate the policy (if permitted by the policy conditions). Once written instructions are received from the customer, the policy will be removed from the unclaimed list.

* This does not apply to a policy which constitutes or forms part of the assets of an occupational pension scheme, other retirement benefit scheme or trust; a group permanent health insurance or disability benefit scheme; a sponsored superannuation scheme.

Life Assurance companies are not required to write to holders of unclaimed policies where (a) the value of the policy is less than €500 or (b) the company has been instructed not to correspond with or contact the policyholder, or (c) the company has tried but failed to contact the customer. In such cases, this advertisement serves as notice of the Act's provisions.

Where there has been no communication from the customer by 31st March 2006, the net encashment value of the policy will be transferred to the National Treasury Management Agency (NTMA) which will manage the funds on behalf of the State.

The rights of policy owners are unaffected by the transfer of moneys to the NTMA. Policies may be reclaimed from the insurance company by following the procedures outlined in the leaflet 'A Guide to Unclaimed Life Assurance Policies' available at all life assurance companies or from www.iif.ie.

If you have any queries or concerns regarding a policy which you believe may be classified as unclaimed, please contact your insurer†.

Where the original owner of the policy has died or ownership of the policy has been transferred, any person having a valid legal interest in an unclaimed policy e.g. heirs, executors, administrators or assignees, should contact the relevant insurer.

Individuals who make fraudulent claims may be guilty of an offence.

† If the branch or insurance company that initiated your policy no longer exists please log on to the IIF website at www.iif.ie which contains contact numbers of individual companies or telephone IIF on (01) 6761914. Further information is available in our leaflet "A Guide to Unclaimed Life Assurance Policies" available at all life assurance offices.

DORMANT ACCOUNTS ACT 2001

Under the terms of the Dormant Accounts Act 2001 Financial Institutions, including An Post (formerly Department of Posts and Telegraphs), are required to identify accounts/investments where no customer transactions have taken place for the past 15 years or more and to designate these accounts/investments as being dormant.

In accordance with the Act, An Post will write to the holders of accounts or investments deemed to be dormant, except where:

- the account or investment balance is less than €100, or
- the account or investment holder has requested that no correspondence be sent, or
- previous correspondence to the account or investment holder has been returned marked 'gone away' or 'not known at this address'.

Where An Post has already been notified that the holder of the account or investment is deceased a letter will be issued in due course to the legal/personal representative.

To prevent an account or investment becoming dormant the account holder/investor must make a transaction which is defined as follows:

- For a Post office Savings Bank Deposit Account (Post office Book) with no transactions since 1 October 1990, a Deposit or a withdrawal on or before 31 March 2006 will prevent the account becoming dormant.

In the case of Savings Bonds, Savings Certificates and Instalment Savings the 15 year period commences at the first maturity point for the investment i.e. on completion of the initial investment term. The following investments will be considered dormant unless a partial repayment takes place on or before 31 March 2006:

- Savings Bonds (purchased on or before 30 September 1987 with no partial repayments since 1 October 1990)
- Savings Certificates (purchased on or before 30 September 1985 with no partial repayments since 1 October 1990)
- Instalment Savings (where the 12 month savings cycle was completed on or before 30 September 1985 with no partial repayments since 1 October 1990)

Once a transaction is made on or before 31 March 2006 the account or investment will be removed from the dormant list.

Where no transaction takes place on the account or investment on or before 31 March 2006 the total value of the holding will be transferred to the Dormant Accounts Fund held by the National Treasury Management Agency (NTMA), who will manage the funds on behalf of the State.

Balances transferred to the Dormant Accounts Fund, including any interest due thereon, will remain the property of the account or investment holder and may be reclaimed at any time from An Post subject to advance notice as prescribed in the Act.

Further information is available in our leaflet "A Guide to Dormant Savings and Investments" available at Post Offices nationwide. Alternatively, you can visit our website: www.anpost.ie or contact the Savings and Investments Dormancy Information Line on (01) 705 9595.

Individuals who make fraudulent claims may be guilty of an offence under the terms of the Act.
