Lifelong Learning Programme 2007-2013

General Call for Proposals 2007

Following Decision No. 1720/2006/EC of the European Parliament and the Council, the new Lifelong Learning Programme 2007-2013 commenced on 1 January, 2007.

The new Programme builds on the experience of the existing generation of programmes, Socrates (education), Leonardo da Vinci (vocational training) and eLearning, restructuring a range of existing actions into one cohesive programme. The aim of the new programme is both to contribute through lifelong learning to the development of the Community as an advanced knowledge society, with sustainable economic development, more and better jobs and greater social cohesion, and to foster interaction, cooperation and mobility between education and training systems within the Community, with the aim of becoming a world quality reference.

The new programme comprises sectoral programmes on school education (Comenius), higher education (Erasmus), vocational training (Leonardo da Vinci and adult education (Grundtvig), to be complemented by transversal policy and dissemination measures (Transversal Programme) and an additional Jean Monnet programme focusing on European integration.

While the Jean Monnet Programme has a deadline of 13 March 2007, the main deadline for applications in 2007 is 30 March (some types of application have a later deadline).

Guidlines, application forms and full details are available, as follows:
