TO EACH MEMBER OF KINSALE TOWN COUNCIL

Re: Review of Bye-Laws in respect of the control of Intoxicating Substances in Public Places.

Dear Councillor,

Enclosed please find a copy of a draft set of Bye-Laws to amend the current Bye-Laws dealing with the above matter. The changes proposed are to include in the Bye-laws a mechanism to allow for the issue of "on the spot fines" fines in respect of offences under the bye-laws. The new Bye-laws are identical to the 1998 ones in the first 7 sections. From section 8 on are new.

I have recently discussed this matter with the Gardaí. They say that the current deterrents in the Bye-laws while sufficient within themselves could be strengthened by the introduction of an on the spot fine type of offence. Currently the Gardaí may seize any of these substances from those found with them and also have the power of arrest where appropriate. They consider that if a fine could be imposed it would act as a deterrent to future and repeat offences. I consider that we should facilitate them in this matter as we all wish to see an end to this activity.

The draft Bye-Laws are on public display to 12th June, 2007. Submissions will be accepted to 20th June, 2007. They will then be placed before the members for adoption at the September meeting along with any submissions/observations received.

Yours Sincerely,

RAY OWENS,
Town Clerk.
