DORMANT ACCOUNTS ACT 2001

Under the terms of the Dormant Accounts Act 2001 Financial Institutions, including An Post (formerly Department of Posts and Telegraphs), are required to identify accounts/investments where no customer transactions have taken place for the past 15 years or more and to designate these accounts /investments as being dormant.

In accordance with the Act, An Post will write to the holders of accounts or investments deemed to be dormant, except where:

- the account or investment balance is less than €100, or
- the account or investment holder has requested that no correspondence be sent, or
- previous correspondence to the account or investment holder has been returned marked 'gone away' or 'not known at this address'.

Where An Post has already been notified that the holder of the account or investment is deceased a letter will be issued in due course to the legal/personal representative. To prevent an account or investment becoming dormant the account holder/investor must make a transaction which is defined as follows:

- For a Post Office Savings Bank Deposit Account (Post Office Book) with no transactions since 1 October, 1993, a deposit or a withdrawal will prevent the account becoming dormant.

In the case of Savings Bonds, Savings Certificates and Instalment Savings the 15 year period commences at the first maturity point for the investment i.e. on completion of the initial investment term. The following investments will be considered dormant unless a partial repayment takes place on or before 31 March, 2009:

- Savings Bonds
(purchased on or before 30 September, 1990 with no partial repayments since 1 October, 1993)
- Savings Certificates
(purchased on or before 30 September, 1988 with no partial repayments since 1 October, 1993)
- Instalment Savings
(where the 12 month savings cycle was completed on or before 30 September, 1988 with no partial repayments since 1 October, 1993)

Once a transaction is made on or before 31 March, 2009, the account or investment will be removed from the dormant list.

Where no transaction takes place on the account or investment by 31 March, 2009, the total value of the holding will be transferred to the Dormant Accounts Fund held by the National Treasury Management Agency (NTMA), who will manage the funds on behalf of the State.

Balances transferred to the Dormant Accounts Fund, including any interest due thereon, will remain the property of the account or investment holder and may be reclaimed at any time from An Post subject to advance notice as prescribed in the Act.

Individuals who make fraudulent claims may be guilty of an offence under the terms of the Act.
